SUPPORT

The Barrington Advantage

Installation - Training - Warranty - Film Support

When you buy a new machine or system from Barrington Packaging Systems Group, you not only get fully featured, high quality machinery at an affordable price. You also get The Barrington Advantage - the best post-purchase program in the packaging industry.

The Barrington Advantage encompasses complete installation, comprehensive training, the best warranty in the industry, and film consultation and service - all working together to keep your Barrington machine working at peak efficiency and your business growing.

Installation

Our factory-certified technical support staff will install your new machine at your facility. This includes machine placement, assembly, and working with your local electrician. We will set up the machine with your film, and run test production of your product.

Training

We will train your production and maintenance personnel to operate the machine, make product changeovers and troubleshoot. If you wish, we will also remain on premises for production observation. Your staff operates the machine in a full production environment observed by our trainer, to make sure that your operators are confident and proficient in operating the machine. Well trained operators and maintenance personnel will give your business long lasting results and keep your Barrington machine running at peak efficiency for years to come.

Warranty

The Barrington Warranty is the most comprehensive warrant in the packaging industry. Our warranty covers parts and labor for a full two year period. The "Industry Standard" warranty covers parts only, and for just one year.

Film Service

Barrington can help you select the film that's right for your product and your machine, and can provide you with film or bags at competitive prices. We can choose the right film for product protection and the visible impact that your product requires. We can help you save money with vendor-managed inventory programs and off-shore sourcing. Barrington can be your one source for all your packaging needs.
